“993” On Ya Bike Collection!

Thursday 16th September 2010

The 993 Register has an exclusive opportunity to visit an extremely rare collection of bicycles and memorabilia not on view to the public.

Paul and Charlie Farren are the owners of the remarkable collection of Bicycles. The collection has been gathered from all over the world. The Bikes are lovingly restored to their former glory by Paul.

Some of the examples go back to the late 1700's.

During the late 1800's the bicycle was in its heyday and many strange contraptions were built to wow the buyer, these machines had the status of the “Supercars” of today.

This collection would be rated in the top ten of Private Collections in the World.

Paul will personally take the “993 Register” through some of the surviving examples of the two, three and four wheeled traveling machines, with some informative and nostalgic narrative.

Due to security requirements no photos showing the front of the building are allowed.
