Club Night

Tuesday 17th August 2010

ROD BARRETT

General Manager Ford Performance Vehicles & Motor Racer

"HOW DID A GUY LIKE ME GET A JOB LIKE THIS??!"

Rod has had such an interesting life starting in Tasmania. Born into a motor racing family, his Dad, Jim, was a successful driver in the early 60's. Rod's motor racing career began in 1979 and by the mid 1980's this passion continued in England, with this opportunity arising from a stepping stone in what has been a remarkable career in international business.

Rod has worked across Australasia, the UK and Asia for Coca-Cola, The Fosters Group, Dairy Farmers and is now in a position that combines all his talents and passion at Ford Performance Vehicles as General Manager.

Along with all of this, Rod is currently the Chairman of Australian Formula Ford Management and has recently contested the Legends V8 Ute Race at the Clipsal 500 meeting with David Sieders, gaining a podium 3rd place after the weekend's racing.

Rod is a truly inspirational person who has achieved so much in life. He is the author of two books detailing his career. We look forward to you joining us to share the story of Rod Barrett - "How did a guy like me get a job like this".

The format of the evening will be our usual programme of socializing, dining at tables, topical presentations, meeting new members and hearing about competition results, social news and forthcoming events.

Time: 6:30pm for 7:00pm start.

Venue: Porsche Centre Melbourne, 109-111 Victoria Parade, Collingwood

New members are most welcome.
