Club Night at Porsche Centre Brighton

Tuesday 20th April 2010

Special Presentation Porsche Museum Stuttgart

Chris and Julie Mason have only been members of the PCV for a short time but felt the need to visit the Mecca of any Porsche tragic, the new Porsche Museum in Stuttgart late last year. Chris wanted to have a better understanding of the marque, and the heritage of the current models including his much loved GT3.

The Masons travel regularly to Europe on business so the challenge was how to justify the time rather than the cost of a side-track to Stuttgart. In the end it was just a one day diversion (and two nights in Stuttgart) whilst flying from Copenhagen to London. The total time at the Museum was 6 hours (including a highly recommended lunch at the Christophorus restaurant on the top floor of the Museum) and a visit to the Stuttgart dealership next door. If needed, the visit can be done in a single day from London or other major European hub.

Chris's presentation includes the why and how of his visits, encouragement for all members to make the journey to see it for themselves, photographs of many of the 80 cars on display, and specific comments on the "must see" exhibits such as the GT1, 959, and the 1948 model 356. Chris will include guidance on how to "justify" this trip to your "boss" and how to remove any perceived barriers to your planned trip. At the end of his presentation every PCV member should have a plan for visiting the Museum within the next few years!

The format of the evening will follow our programme of socialising, finger food and drinks; beer wines and soft drink, topical presentations, meeting new members and hearing about competition results, social news and forthcoming events.
