INSIDE-OUT-BACK-TO-FRONT CHRISTMAS IN JULY WINTER RUN TO WILLIAMSTOWN Sunday 22nd July 2012

When the days are short and the nights are cold, how about a social run that finishes almost on your doorstep?

If we all fit back in our cars after the CFA have spoilt us as usual, we will head north-west around the top of our city, delaying the point at which we rejoin the urban sprawl as long as possible.

The RYCV has arranged for our cars to be parked securely on the adjacent wharf. Lunch will be served in the dining room which enjoys stunning views across the bay.

So crank up the Stuttgart reindeer on July 22 and let's go!

Well that's what we have for you – a stimulating drive ending with a sumptuous three-course Christmas lunch at the Royal Yacht Club of Victoria (RYCV) in Williamstown.

Starting in the foothills of the Dandenongs, our winter sleigh ride passes through lush Puffing Billy country via Gembrook and Launching Place to our morning tea stop at the brand new CFA station in Kinglake.

PRICE:

$55.00 per person includes morning tea and three-course Christmas lunch with all the trimmings. Drinks to own account.
