Bathurst.

After the chequered flag drops at the 2017 Bathurst 12 Hour, you'll take Pole Position in your Porsche.

This is an event that may only come around once. An opportunity to test yourself, and your Porsche, on the iconic Mount Panorama Circuit. First, revel in the atmosphere of the 2017 Bathurst 12 Hour, Australia's internationally renowned endurance race, from Porsche's exclusive hospitality suite. Then, the morning after the big race, hit the track yourself with an unprecedented Porsche Driving Experience.

'The Mountain' holds a special place in the hearts of all motor racing enthusiasts. And rightly so. It's the most famous 6.2km of bitumen in the country. Conrod Straight. Hell Corner. Skyline. Forrest's Elbow. You've heard the names since you were young. You've watched the race on television. In fact, you can probably shut your eyes right now and run through a lap in your mind's eye. But will you have the tenacity to take it on? In your own Porsche? Because mastering The Mountain is to drivers what scaling Everest is to climbers: the ultimate challenge, the sternest test.
