SUMMER RUN to the MORNINGTON PENINSULA

SUNDAY 12th February 2012

Most of the terrorists, (tourists!), will have gone and the cricket is nearly over for another season, plus it's been a while since we had a Run. So why don't you join us for a great drive on the interesting roads of the Mornington Peninsula and then enjoy a really great lunch at the Flinders Golf Club.

With superb views to 'the Nobbies' out over Bass Strait, the Flinders Golf Club will provide a really enjoyable lunch in their recently refurbished dining room.

After lunch, why not have a 'hit' on one of the most beautiful golf courses in Victoria. Please let us know, as heavily discounted green fees have been negotiated! Our run will also incorporate morning tea at a local CFA.
