Winter Run Creswick via the Burke & Wills Track Sunday 18th July 2010

Winter may be here, but PCV has the best excuse to dig out the woollies, remove yourself from the couch, and fire up the heater of the Porsche for a great day out.

Our winter adventure offers a spirited drive over Mt Macedon and around the wine country of Heathcote, including the track once travelled by explorers Burke and Wills. The route will stimulate the senses as we journey through valleys of vines, over hills, and between fields of massive boulders.

After Morning Tea in Heathcote, our final destination is the mining township of Creswick. Here we will enjoy a lavish 3-course buffet lunch at the 4 ½ star Novotel Forest Resort, set in 150 acres of lush bush land, and complete with it's own 18 hole golf course.

Novotel has kindly offered PCV Members an ongoing special accommodation rate of $179 including full buffet breakfast for two at the Forest Resort, so why not make a long weekend out of the Winter Run, and explore the area at leisure.
